

ALLIERA & REBECCA

HAAUS FOUNDERS // DESIGNERS // RENOVATORS

Alliera and Rebecca are the dynamic duo behind HAAUS, a leading name in Australian design and home renovation. With years of hands-on experience transforming homes, they are renowned for their unique approach to creating stunning and functional spaces that are visually appealing and practical.

Alliera, the go-getter of the team, infuses each project with boundless energy and a keen eye for detail. Her quick decision-making on-site has earned her a reputation for getting things done, while her passion for modern, stylish interiors drives the aesthetic vision of HAAUS.

Rebecca, the calming force, provides creative direction with her steady and thoughtful approach. Her expertise in project management and strong sense of balance ensure that every renovation/builds runs smoothly, meeting deadlines and maintaining the high standards they set.

Together, they have transformed HAAUS into a brand that offers complete lifestyle transformations, not just renovations. Their work has been featured in magazines, product catalogs, television shows and commercials, attracting a dedicated following of over 178,000 Instagram followers eagerly awaiting their latest projects.

Juggling the demands of large-scale renovations and builds while each raising four children is no small feat, but Alliera and Rebecca test the limits of what's possible in blending family life with home design. This connection allows them to share real, honest insights about the challenges and rewards of creating beautiful homes with kids in tow.

Working together for four years, they have built HAAUS into a highly sought-after brand recognised for creating homes that align with their audience's visions. As trusted voices in the industry, they provide practical advice on social media, drawing from their experiences of juggling family, work and creativity.

Whether transforming homes or creating engaging social media content, Alliera and Rebecca continue to redefine the design landscape with their unique blend of energy, expertise and creativity, setting HAAUS apart from the rest.

@haausdesign

@HAAUSdesign

@haaus