

ERIN MOLAN

TV & RADIO PRESENTER // EMCEE // KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Erin Molan is an Australian TV and Radio presenter. She's one third of the comedy breakfast show on 2DayFM 'Hughesy, Ed and Erin', is the host of her own prime time show, 'Erin' on Sky News and is a columnist for the Daily Telegraph.

Molan is also the proud designer and owner of a world-first baby range, 'By Erin'.

She is passionate about politics, national security and foreign affairs plus uses her platform to support countless charities and causes - including Bowel Cancer Australia, Dreams2Live4, Syd2Camera and Tresillian.

Her own experience with online abuse led to her advocacy for new laws to protect Australians online. The 'Online Safety Act' or 'Erin's Law', as former Prime Minister Scott Morrison refers to it, was passed in Parliament in 2021.

She spent over a decade as a sports and news presenter on Channel 9... including as the first female to host the NRL Footy Show and 2GBs Continuous Call Team.

Molan also competed in the world's most dangerous open ocean race, The Sydney to Hobart, on two occasions, the second as part of the World Record breaking winning team, Perpetual Loyal.

She travels the country sharing her story of persistence, resilience, failure and always 'fronting up' regardless of what's thrown her way... plus ensuring negative experiences become a catalyst for change... always with a laugh along the way!

Erin considers inspiring and empowering the next generation of Australians a genuine privilege and responsibility.
